

Office of Disability Services

What does ODS do? ODS assists in providing equal access to university life through the determination of appropriate accommodations.

Who is eligible? Students with a diagnosed and documented medical, physical, or mental health condition that is affecting at least one major life activity, such as ADHD, anxiety, a learning disability, or visual impairment.

Any student is welcome to contact ODS for more information.

Office of Disability Services
707 Building, 5th Floor
414-288-1645 | ods@mu.edu
mu.edu/disability-services

Office of Disability Services

What does ODS do? ODS assists in providing equal access to university life through the determination of appropriate accommodations.

Who is eligible? Students with a diagnosed and documented medical, physical, or mental health condition that is affecting at least one major life activity, such as ADHD, anxiety, a learning disability, or visual impairment.

Any student is welcome to contact ODS for more information.

Office of Disability Services
707 Building, 5th Floor
414-288-1645 | ods@mu.edu
mu.edu/disability-services

Office of Disability Services

What does ODS do? ODS assists in providing equal access to university life through the determination of appropriate accommodations.

Who is eligible? Students with a diagnosed and documented medical, physical, or mental health condition that is affecting at least one major life activity, such as ADHD, anxiety, a learning disability, or visual impairment.

Any student is welcome to contact ODS for more information.

Office of Disability Services
707 Building, 5th Floor
414-288-1645 | ods@mu.edu
mu.edu/disability-services

Office of Disability Services

What does ODS do? ODS assists in providing equal access to university life through the determination of appropriate accommodations.

Who is eligible? Students with a diagnosed and documented medical, physical, or mental health condition that is affecting at least one major life activity, such as ADHD, anxiety, a learning disability, or visual impairment.

Any student is welcome to contact ODS for more information.

Office of Disability Services
707 Building, 5th Floor
414-288-1645 | ods@mu.edu
mu.edu/disability-services