CONNECTING ON CAMPUS

It's easy to feel a bit disconnected from campus this year. This week we are highlighting activities offer you a chance to grow academically and give back:

METCALFE LECTURE: "Monumental Mobility: The Memory Work of Massasoit," Monday April 12 from 11:30 am-1:00 pm

- Join historians Dr. Lisa Blee and Dr. Jean O'Brien to hear more about their study on the creation of the public memory of indigenous culture--specifically the Pokanoket Massasoit (leader) being portrayed as a welcoming diplomat to white settlers in Plymouth, Massachusetts. Marquette's own, Dr. Laura Matthew will moderate. Click here to register.

FILM SCREENING: REPRESENT, Tuesday, April 13 at 5:00 pm

- The Political Science department will host this film viewing about three women confronting entrenched political systems and fighting to reshape local politics. This will be followed by a live Q&A session with the director and women featured in the film. Click here to register and find out more about the film.

VOLUNTEER: Hunger Clean-Up, April 12-17

- Register in groups of 4 people who live together or regularly spend time together.

HONORS SPOTLIGHT

CURIOSITY, DIALOGUE, AND EXPLORING DIVERSE PERSPECTIVES

"...in diversity there is beauty and there is strength." -- Maya Angelou
